MONROE CITY COUNCIL AND PLANNING COMMISSION WORK SESSION

January 23, 2018

6PM

MONROE COMMUNITY LIBRARY

380 N. 5th Street Monroe, Oregon (Highway 99W)

On Tuesday January 23, 2018, the Monroe City Council and the Monroe Planning Commission will be conducting a joint work session with city staff and staff members from the Long Tom Watershed. The purpose of this work session is to learn and discuss the variety of potential design and functional activities that could occur relating to the river and the flow of water through the city owned park and the connectivity of the flows. This is a work session for the planning commission and city council to discuss the long-term river related developments within the City of Monroe as a part of the comprehensive 20-year master plan and revision of new park plan. There will be no decisions rendered and no votes or actual business conducted. This is an educational and sharing opportunities for the elected and appointed volunteers serving the community of Monroe.

Questions and inquiries may be directed to the City Administrator, Rick Hohnbaum at Monroe City Hall or rick.hohnbaum@ci.monroe.or.us

This is a public and open work session with a quorum of both public bodies being expected to be present. There will not be a public hearing during this educational and training event.
