

PUBLIC NOTICE

Vacant Planning Commission Seat: The City is accepting letters of interest from any citizen seeking council consideration for appointment.

Typically, there is one regular meeting a month on the first Monday at 6:00 PM. Currently the Planning Commission is working on a long-term development plan for the community and are meeting about once a month in a work session format. The City Council would like to appoint a new member at the January 27, 2020 City Council Meeting.

The Planning Commission is made of seven members some who are residents of the City and some who reside outside of the City, all whom have an interest in our town and community. The Planning Commission is subject to Oregon Ethics Commission standards including a Statement of Economic Interest (SEI) which is a public document.

City Hall will be accepting letters of interest until Wednesday, January 22, 2020.

Any questions or inquires may be directed to the City Administrator, Rick Hohnbaum at rick.hohnbaum@ci.monroe.or.us or City Hall (541) 847-5175.

Additional information, including Planning Commission agenda & minutes are available at City of Monroe website www.ci.monroe.or.us
