

HONORING FIRST RESPONDERS PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on September 11, 2001, the United States suffered devastating terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center, the Pentagon and in the skies over Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, these tragic events led to an overwhelming loss of life and grievous injury to many of our fellow Americans; and

WHEREAS, these events called for an unprecedented response from law enforcement, firefighters, rescue teams, military personnel and other first responders; and

WHEREAS, these courageous and dedicated public servants met the challenge and placed themselves in great danger in order to assist their communities and fellow Americans during this disaster; and

WHEREAS, on the 20th anniversary of September 11th, the City of Monroe would like to recognize and honor our local first responders, military personnel, veterans and men and women everywhere who serve our Country and their communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dan Sheets, Mayor for the City of Monroe, do hereby proclaim the day of September 11, 2021 as a ...

Day of Tribute

... in the City of Monroe, to honor the sacrifices made by first responders, military personnel and veterans to protect our community, and ask our citizens to honor these selfless public servants.

DATED this 1st day of September, 2021.
