PRESS RELEASE: Mayor Sheets at Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for Alpine Community Center's Monroe Resale Shop

MONROE, Ore. - November 22 — Mayor Dan Sheets will join Alpine Community Center members, Monroe Resale Shop volunteers and manager, Kerry Hastings, along with members of the Business Association of Monroe, and City of Monroe elected officials at the grand opening and ribbon cutting ceremony at the Alpine Community Center's Monroe Resale Shop, located at 504 Main Street, in Monroe, on Saturday, November 27, 2021 at 11 a.m.

“The grand opening of the Alpine Community Center's Monroe Resale Shop, at its new location – in the heart of Monroe's Riverside District, is one of the ways we are making our community better by bringing opportunity, economic activity, and support to residents of South Benton County and the City of Monroe” said Mayor Dan Sheets.

The Monroe Resale Shop is a vital service to the South Benton community, which is staffed by friendly volunteers, and provides the only local source for affordable clothes and housewares. When shopping at the Resale Shop, you will find good quality used items including clothing, books, DVDs, housewares, craft and hobby items, and a little bit of everything. Hours of operation at the Monroe Resale Shop are Thursdays and Fridays from 12 Noon to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

For more information or donate items to the Monroe Resale Shop, please contact Kerry Hastings at 317-800-1873.
