Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Proclamation

MONROE, OREGON, January 14 – Mayor Dan Sheets signed a proclamation designating Monday, January 17, 2022 in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and issued the following remarks:

“Dr. Martin Luther King’s words and actions are as pertinent today as they were during his lifetime and it is incumbent upon us all to carry forward our promise of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for all exemplified by Dr. King, and by treating everyone with the same great measure of courtesy, dignity, and respect.”

“I hereby proclaim January 17, 2022 as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day in Monroe, Oregon, and call on all residents to reflect on the words and service of Dr. King, to celebrate his life and contributions to our nation, and consider our responsibility to bring equality and respect to each other in our own community.”
